BACKGROUND

Frank has over 30 years of experience training soldiers and civilians in marksmanship skills. He has been conducting firearms training for people of all skill levels since 2011. He has trained competitive shooters, realtors, business owners, new pistol owners to experienced Law Enforcement officers. No matter who the student is, safety is always a priority during training. We continue to develop and use safe training methods. His current focus is safe practical defensive shooting skills for the average person.

Frank has accrued over 1000 hours of firearms and instructor training. He has trained with numerous Police Agencies and some of the best units in the US Army. He is a Certified Master Instructor and Defensive Shotgun Instructor through Range Master Firearms Training Services. He is certified by the Texas Department of Public Safety to instruct the License to Carry course and the Security Level 3 tactics and firearms certification. He also conducts the TCOLE LEOSA certification. He is a Certified NRA Pistol and Rifle Instructor a Certified NRA Range Safety Officer and an NRA Refuse to be a Victim instructor.
